Pick a strategy to teach a social skill (See http://ici2.umn.edu/preschoolbehavior/tip_sheets/default.html for a list and descriptions of strategies). Together with the teacher who directs your work, practice this selected strategy in your daily work. Decide together on a strategy, how you will use it, and a time to review together how well this strategy worked. Talk about what went well and what you would do differently next time. Finally, write a brief summary of this process.
